Discover the mystery and majesty of medieval York with The JORVIK Group.

With three attractions focused on York in the Middle Ages in the centre of the city, The JORVIK Group is the perfect choice to explore medieval history.

Visit our Hidden Medieval Gem...

Barley Hall is a stunning medieval house, once home to the Priors of Nostell and the Mayor of York. Until the 1980s the house was hidden under the relatively modern facade of a derelict office block. Only when the building was going to be destroyed was the amazing medieval building discovered and its history uncovered.

The building has been lovingly restored to its original splendour with stunning high ceilings, beautiful exposed timber frames, and possibly the only horn window in England.

It has been decorated to replicate what it would have looked like as the Snawsell home around 1483 and boasts a magnificent Great Hall. Visitors to Barley Hall can make themselves at home and sit on the chairs and handle the objects and experience what it would have been like to live in medieval England.

Two Kings, Two Gates, One City...

Discover the story of medieval York during the reign of Richard III through to Henry VII.

Explore two of York’s major monuments: Monk Bar and Micklegate Bar, located on the historic city walls and find out the role they played in the strife and ceremony that was shaped by the Wars of the Roses.

Experience the rebellion and conflict: during the sixty years that spanned this turbulent period in British history, ending the rule of one dynasty and the legacies it created for the House of Tudor in the hundred years that followed.

Be sure to make the most of your visit by purchasing a Medieval Pass, granting you access to all three attractions for one great price.

Two Kings, Two Gates, One City...

Visit our Hidden Medieval Gem...

Discover the mystery and majesty of medieval York with The JORVIK Group.

With three attractions focused on York in the Middle Ages in the centre of the city, The JORVIK Group is the perfect choice to explore medieval history.

Visit our Hidden Medieval Gem...

Barley Hall is a stunning medieval house, once home to the Priors of Nostell and the Mayor of York. Until the 1980s the house was hidden under the relatively modern facade of a derelict office block. Only when the building was going to be destroyed was the amazing medieval building discovered and its history uncovered.

The building has been lovingly restored to its original splendour with stunning high ceilings, beautiful exposed timber frames, and possibly the only horn window in England.

It has been decorated to replicate what it would have looked like as the Snawsell home around 1483 and boasts a magnificent Great Hall. Visitors to Barley Hall can make themselves at home and sit on the chairs and handle the objects and experience what it would have been like to live in medieval England.

Two Kings, Two Gates, One City...

Discover the story of medieval York during the reign of Richard III through to Henry VII.

Explore two of York’s major monuments: Monk Bar and Micklegate Bar, located on the historic city walls and find out the role they played in the strife and ceremony that was shaped by the Wars of the Roses.

Experience the rebellion and conflict: during the sixty years that spanned this turbulent period in British history, ending the rule of one dynasty and the legacies it created for the House of Tudor in the hundred years that followed.

Be sure to make the most of your visit by purchasing a Medieval Pass, granting you access to all three attractions for one great price.

Two Kings, Two Gates, One City...

Visit our Hidden Medieval Gem...

Discover the mystery and majesty of medieval York with The JORVIK Group.

With three attractions focused on York in the Middle Ages in the centre of the city, The JORVIK Group is the perfect choice to explore medieval history.

Visit our Hidden Medieval Gem...

Barley Hall is a stunning medieval house, once home to the Priors of Nostell and the Mayor of York. Until the 1980s the house was hidden under the relatively modern facade of a derelict office block. Only when the building was going to be destroyed was the amazing medieval building discovered and its history uncovered.

The building has been lovingly restored to its original splendour with stunning high ceilings, beautiful exposed timber frames, and possibly the only horn window in England.

It has been decorated to replicate what it would have looked like as the Snawsell home around 1483 and boasts a magnificent Great Hall. Visitors to Barley Hall can make themselves at home and sit on the chairs and handle the objects and experience what it would have been like to live in medieval England.

Two Kings, Two Gates, One City...

Discover the story of medieval York during the reign of Richard III through to Henry VII.

Explore two of York’s major monuments: Monk Bar and Micklegate Bar, located on the historic city walls and find out the role they played in the strife and ceremony that was shaped by the Wars of the Roses.

Experience the rebellion and conflict: during the sixty years that spanned this turbulent period in British history, ending the rule of one dynasty and the legacies it created for the House of Tudor in the hundred years that followed.

Be sure to make the most of your visit by purchasing a Medieval Pass, granting you access to all three attractions for one great price.